iTunes Info is a program that has a highly customizable popup display of iTunes information using either a glass window or a basic window combined with a highly customizable set of events and actions including system-wide keyboard events. This project is in a beta state, indicating that it seems to be mostly working but hasn't been thoroughly tested. When there is no settings.xml file (for example when you first install) the actions used are the default actions. Once running press Ctrl + Alt + Win + O (the letter O) to bring up the options dialog to change the settings. About iTunes Info: iTunes Info is a program that has a highly customizable popup display of iTunes information using either a glass window or a basic window combined with a highly customizable set of events and actions including system-wide keyboard events. There are various types of windows that can be created for freehand choices about the look and behavior, and various types of windows that allow mouse selection for other choices. iTunes Info runs invisibly in the tray and appears only when user events are processed. Version History: 1.2 - 3/9/2001 - Version 1.2 - Automatic Installers for updating automatic installers - "Automatic Installer" will now work when iTunes Info is not installed on the computer, although you will be prompted to download the update installer if your computer has not previously downloaded the installer for iTunes Info. Also with the automatic installer, iTunes Info will now allow you to edit the installer and choose whether or not you wish to install iTunes Info. 1.1 - 2/5/2001 - Version 1.1 - Cleaner window styles added, including black text on white background 1.0 - 2/5/2001 - Version 1.0 - Removed the tray icon when set to no icon ----- This software is in beta. Therefore, there may be bugs and things may not work quite right. Please feel free to email me with any questions, suggestions, bug reports, or results you may have. However, if you want to work with an untested program on your computer system, you will probably not be able to borrow help from me. My work is to make a product, and doing beta testing is the best way to get feedback. If you are not interested in testing the program, then your best bet is to look elsewhere. What's New In iTunes Info?

----- The iPod/iPhone/iPad Info window provides details of your iPod/iPhone/iPad, such as device name, name of latest playlist and artist name, currently playing song, etc. This plugin dynamically displays the information from your iPod/iPhone/iPad device in a window. iTunes Info is fully customizable. You can set it to display the information in a window with a transparent background, control the appearance of the window using CSS, or use a basic window like iPod/iPhone/iPad Music Player. This plugin has the additional ability to catch all keyboard events such as media keys, and respond to those events. You can also use the plugin as a custom keymap in Xubuntu or Xfce. You can configure the plugin to act as a Dock applet (it will appear on the right side of the screen), so that you can change the information about your iPod/iPhone/iPad right on the desktop. Features: ----- Fully customizable appearance - Use an Xfce basic window as the base - Catch all system-wide keyboard events. - Use as a Dock applet. - Works on Xubuntu and Xfce - Set actions to display menu, tooltip, or simple tooltip - Catch all keyboard events (Media keys, etc) - Fully configurable - Change the name of the plugin (Run Script) Installation: ----- This plugin is hosted on Xfce Plugin Repository. Download the archive of iTune Info and extract the archive. You will be presented with a window asking you to choose where you want to extract to. Select to extract to the plugins directory, which is usually /usr/lib/xfce4/xfce4-plugins/iTunes Info. You can also extract to your home directory if you want to. Once you've extracted it you should see two files in the plugins directory. iTunes Info.app iTunes Info.plugin Read the README file for instructions. Changelog: ----- v0.2.5 - Change "Untitled" to "iTunes Info" and add the first version of itunes plugin to the README file. v0.2.1 - Add the basic window. - Added music player to the basic window. v0.2.0 - Initial release.
